PVA LAUNCHES GIVING CATALOG

Do you ever wonder how your gifts to PVA are used? This holiday season, PVA gave donors the opportunity to see the impact of every dollar by selecting a gift such as career counseling or an adaptive vehicle through a giving catalog.

Thank you to everyone who made a gift. You truly make a difference in the lives of paralyzed and disabled Veterans! Even though the holidays are over, you can still select a gift for Veterans on our website.

MEET JASON
U.S. ARMY VETERAN

U.S. Army Veteran Jason Dills first injured his neck while serving in Iraq in 2007. It wasn’t until he came home that he realized the severity of his injury, when a jump in the swimming pool led to permanent paralysis. Jason found PVA through the VA Spinal Cord Clinic in Augusta. Check out our website to learn how Jason used PVA’s Veterans Career program to propel his career in Business Administration forward.
Did you know PVA funds cutting-edge SCI/D research and works with the medical community to improve SCI/D care? This month, we spoke with Cheryl Vines about her work overseeing PVA’s Research and Education Foundations, which make this work possible. Read the interview on our website, or listen to the audio version on SoundCloud.
