

For 75 years and counting,

PVA has led the fight for accessibility and provided a full-circle of support for America's heroes throughout their lives—from the point of injury or diagnosis to recovery and rehabilitation, and all other milestones of life. Staffed with licensed architects, medical professionals, legal experts, and leaders in research and education, PVA helps all those with spinal cord injuries and diseases, like MS and ALS, live full, independent lives.

PVA supports Veterans, their families, and caregivers at EVERY STEP ALONG THEIR JOURNEY to ensure they get the help they need.

NATIONAL SERVICE OFFICERS (NSOs)

PVA's national service officers work inside VA's SCI/D Medical Centers. They help members file VA claims, monitor hospital activity, and obtain legal aid for claims and appeals. Connect with an NSO at PVA.org/NSO.

ADAPTIVE SPORTS & RECREATION

PVA hosts free virtual and in-person adaptive sports and recreation activities, like bass fishing, bowling, yoga, and the National Veterans Wheelchair Games. Find upcoming activities and events at PVA.org/Sports.

CAREER SUPPORT

PVA's vocational counselors work with members and their families to find meaningful employment, education and training, and volunteer openings. They also host virtual sessions with experts and employers. Talk with a counselor at PVA.org/Careers.

DISABILITY CIVIL RIGHTS

PVA meets frequently with Congress and cabinet secretaries, and testifies on Capitol Hill on topics like, accessible air travel, adaptive vehicles, housing modifications, and disability employment incentives. Receive legislative alerts and petitions at PVA.org/ActionForce.

WOMEN VETERANS

PVA provides women-centric employment support and advocacy, evaluates access to VA Veterans' clinics, and hosts webinars and empowerment retreats. Join our private PVA Women Empowered! Facebook group.

SCHOLARSHIPS

PVA awards educational scholarships to our members and their families. View available grants at PVA.org/Scholarships.

DISASTER RELIEF FUND

PVA offers financial relief to members who suffer a loss after a natural disaster. From replacing food and clothing to repairing a damaged roof, PVA helps members on their road to recovery. Learn more at PVA.org/DisasterRelief.
